DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. The species are as follows:

Species I, claim 5, drawn to Figures 2-5

Species II, claims 6-8, drawn to Figures 7-10

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1-4.

2. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: there is not a special technical feature common to all the groups that makes a contribution over the prior art. The special technical features of Species I, a nut plate to be rotated in response to a push button and a screw bar threadly engaged with the nut plate is not shared in species II. Likewise, the special technical features of species II, a cam vertically raised in response to a push button and a screw bar engaged with the cam, is not shared in species I. Therefore, the respective groups lack the same or corresponding special technical features and do not relate to a single general inventive concept.
7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

8. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
